Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET)

Capacity Building Programme for Professionals and Managers in Libya

I. Introduction

Increasing resilience among migrants and host communities to become self-sufficient and enhance opportunities for livelihood growth and decent work in an inclusive labour force is among the strategic priorities of IOM Libya. The International Organization for Migration (IOM) has been collaborating with the Ministry of Labour and rehabilitation (MoL) towards enhancing the Technical Vocational Education Training (TVET) sector and addressing the deep-rooted skilled mismatch in the labour market. In 2021, IOM commissioned to identify a sector with highest potential to create employment opportunities for youths and assess the skill gaps among the youth labour force in Libya. Following the recommendations, IOM collaborated with the MoL and developed industry oriented TVET curricula in three identified economic sectors (agriculture, construction and automotive) based on the labour market assessment, which went through a detailed process in 2022-2023. The training curricula were:

- Agriculture export reinforcement training program
- Solar Panel Installation and Maintenance training program
- Car Electrical maintenance training program
- Agricultural Machine Maintenance training program
- Smart Irrigation System training program
- Gypsum Panel and decoration training program
- Air conditioning Maintenance training program

Currently IOM supports the MoL to expand its TVET services in the south so to offer skill enhancement services in highly unemployed communities. As a first step, it is envisioned to establish a TVET centre in Sabha. As an initial stage, an old school is planned to be converted to TVET center. Once the renovation work is completed, the center will start accepting students and unemployed youth to train in four skills per the training modules already developed. Out of the seven curricula developed by IOM, the MoL has identified four curricula that will be rolled out once the center becomes fully operational. New learning courses may be developed based on the local labour demands.

II. Objective

The objective of this capacity building training is to equip the TVET professionals and managers with the necessary theoretical and practical knowledge and skills to effectively roll out the training modules and manage the new TVET center. IOM shall have the right to deduct such amount from the Service Provider's outstanding invoices, if any. Such liquidated damages shall only be applied when delay is caused solely by the default of the Service Provider. On receipt of such notice, the unaffected Party shall take such action as it reasonably considers appropriate or necessary in the circumstances, including granting to the affected Party a reasonable extension of time in which to perform its obligations. During the period of force majeure, the affected Party shall take all reasonable steps to minimize damages and resume performance.

13. Use of IOM Name, Abbreviation and Emblem

The Service Provider shall not be entitled to use the name, abbreviation or emblem of IOM without IOM's prior written authorisation. This indemnity shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

16. Waiver

Failure by either Party to insist in any one or more instances on a strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver or relinquishment of the right to enforce the provisions of this Agreement in future instances, but this right shall continue and remain in full force and effect.

17. Termination

- 17.1 IOM may at any time suspend or terminate this Agreement, in whole or in part, with immediate effect, by providing written notice to the Service Provider, in any case where the mandate of IOM applicable to the performance of the Agreement or the funding of IOM applicable to the Agreement is reduced or terminated. The Service Provider shall return to IOM any amounts paid in advance within 7 (seven) days from the notice of termination.
